CAROLYN'S CAREER

Carolyn's leadership journey includes key executive roles such as Managing Director and Chief Operating Officer at Bupa Villages and Aged Care NZ, Executive Director of Clinical Operations at Illawarra Shoalhaven LHD in Australia, and senior positions across several New Zealand District Health Boards.

She has led large, multi-site organisations with up to 5,500 staff, directed national strategy, appeared at Australia's Royal Commission into Aged Care, and implemented structural and cultural reforms across healthcare systems. Her leadership was instrumental in improving patient safety, staff engagement, and service delivery during major system transitions and public health crises.

Carolyn has served as Chair of Bupa NZ's governance boards and held board roles across the Aged Care Association, Retirement Villages Association, and InterRAI Governance Board.

Carolyn is values-driven and people-focused. Known for her collaborative and empowering leadership style, she brings clarity to complex systems and builds strong cultures of safety, care, and accountability. Her strategic foresight and operational excellence are matched by a deep commitment to equity, diversity, and culturally responsive services.
